YOUR CAREER AS A QUALIFIED TRAINER STARTS HERE

WHY CHOOSE A CAREER AS A TRAINER?

APPLY YOUR ACCUMULATED KNOWLEDGE

Use the knowledge and skills you already have. You could make the next move in your career by teaching the skills that you already know to new students looking to begin their career.

Vocational Education and Training (VET) trainers aren't just trainers, they have specialist skills and experience from working in certain fields for years and have chosen to teach those skills to others.

GOOD SALARY PACKAGE AS A TRAINER

Depending on your experience and qualifications, salary and remuneration package are attractive.

GREAT WORK-LIFE BALANCE

There is flexibility in the hours you put in as there are full time, part time and even casual positions depending on your preference.

EASY PATHWAY TO GET QUALIFIED AS A TRAINER

Don't worry about having to go through years of studying to become a teacher. Studying a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment is flexible. The course can be completed through in-person workshops or self-paced lessons online, and it costs a fraction of a university degree. You can complete the course while still working in your current industry.

TURN YOUR PASSION FOR TEACHING INTO A PROFESSIONAL CAREER

If you've always enjoyed teaching others then a career as a VET trainer is a great option, even if you've never taught in an 'official' classroom setting before. The Certificate IV in Training and Assessment is the nationally recognised toolkit that you need to successfully pass on your skills to others.

You'll be shown how to plan, organise, and deliver group based learning. As well as designing and developing your own programs, and assessing students competency.
