

H12 HARNESS

STANDARD WORK POSITION HARNESS

PRODUCT FEATURES AND INFORMATION

The H12 Standard Work Positioning Full Body Harness is the first combination harness of its kind. It takes the comfortable and well space upper body features of your industrial working harnesses and combines this with the lower body harness design from the tactical rescue and rope access harnesses.

DATASHEET

H12 HARNESS

PRODUCT FEATURES AND INFORMATION

Standard Features

- Light weight, comfortable design
- Comes pre-inspected, tagged and ready to use
- Front and Rear Attachment Points
- Front Work Positioning D Ring
- Rear Dorsal D with extension strap
- Fall Indicators throughout Harness Exposes red tag (if harness has been shock loaded to alert personnel)
- Extension Loop
- Stainless Steel 2-Bar & 3-Bar Buckles
- Locally manufactured in WA, all harness have MFG date within six months

Buckles & Adjusters

Positioned for easier connection and reduced pressure on hips. Available fittings include:

Available fittings include:

- Standard Mild Steel Fittings
- Stainless Steel Fittings
- Mild Steel Quick Release
- Stainless Steel Quick Release

Webbing Options

Positioned for easier connection and reduced pressure on hips

- Standard - UV Resistant Polyester
- Fire Proof - Nomex coated Kevlar
- Reflective Tape
- Water & Oil Resistant

Materials & Construction

- 44mm polyester webbing
- Zinc plated fittings as standard
- Water/UV resistant webbing

Testing & Quality Control

- 100% visual inspection
- Conforms to AS/NZS1891.1:2007
- Manufactured under an ISO 9001 Certified Quality Assurance System

SPECIFICATIONS

MORGOGANS COMMENTS - REMOVE SAFE WORKING LOAD - LIST SPECS FOR HARNESS. Please provide me with valid specs to be highlighted in this section for the H12 Harness as its not listed in the datasheet.